

TOURISM
WESTMAN

The huge snow goose sculpture in the town of Dunrea recognizes the community's relationship to the annual migration of geese across North America. Cabrea the Snow Goose turns to face north during the spring migration of birds to the area and faces south during the outbound migration of these seasonal fowl in the fall.

CABREA THE SNOW GOOSE

DUNREA, MANITOBA