

TOURISM
WESTMAN

Once famous as the host site of an annual turtle derby race weekend, the town of Boissevain erected the 8 metre (28 foot) painted turtle monument in 1974 as a tribute to the activity which best identified their community. Though the derby was discontinued in 2001,

Tommy Turtle remains as a symbol of friendship among neighbouring nations that share the landscape of the adjacent turtle mountains.

TOMMY THE TURTLE

BOISSEVAIN, MANITOBA